

FRK / FRL

The TROX FRK and FRL are fire dampers which provide an automatic means of isolating areas of fire in ventilation system. These dampers are suitable for installation in walls and ceilings made from concrete or brickwork and are independent of mounting orientation and direction of air flow. The thermal release uses a fusible link or glass cartridge which operates at > 72 to 70 °C